

collision

A large black arrow pointing to the right, indicating the transition from the initial state to the final state after a collision.

